

Hot Girl Comedy Presents: Dishonor Roll

AAPI Heritage Month Showcase

This AAPI Heritage Month, Hot Girl Comedy is throwing out the model minority myth and handing out gold stars for chaos.

Dishonor Roll is a sharp, unapologetic comedy showcase featuring AAPI comics who were “too loud,” “too opinionated,” “too gay,” “too creative,” or simply refused to color inside the lines. Instead of perfect GPAs, we’re celebrating personality disorders (kidding... mostly), cultural contradictions, immigrant-parent trauma, and the beautifully messy path to self-definition.

This isn’t polite representation.
This is Hot Girl Comedy.

Expect:

- Nationally touring and rising AAPI stand-ups
- Smart, unfiltered storytelling
- Cultural commentary with bite
- A room that feels electric, inclusive, and loud in the best way

Dishonor Roll flips the script on expectations and turns rebellion into headliner energy. It's a celebration of identity without apology — bold, hilarious, and socially aware without being preachy.

Perfect for:

- AAPI Heritage Month programming
- Theaters, comedy clubs, and cultural organizations
- Universities and corporate ERGs
- Brands wanting meaningful + marketable cultural events

Hot Girl Comedy produces high-impact, tightly run shows with strong branding, built-in audience appeal, and social-ready moments. We don't just put comics on stage — we curate experiences people talk about after.

Because sometimes the kids who got detention are the ones who deserve the spotlight.

Dishonor Roll.

No extra credit. No stereotypes. Just killers.
